21. Surrender of ration documents and re-dating of account and information by authorised dealers and establishment.—Every authorised wholesale distributor authorised retail distributor or authorised establishment as the case may be shall when so required by the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara or any officer authorised by him in his behalf :—

(1) deliver to him all coupons and other authorities and documents surrendered to him under or for the purposes of this order ;

(2) furnish such particulars relating to his dealing in and stock of any rationed article as may be required.

22. Distribution of rationed articles otherwise than by means of ration documents.—Notwithstanding any provisions of this order, the Chief Commissioner may subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, authorise distribution of any rationed article otherwise than on a ration document and whether or not for household consumption or establishment consumption or for the purposes of an establishment other than establishment consumption.

23. Exemptions.—The Chief Commissioner may exempt any person or class of persons from the operation of all or any of the provisions of this order and may at any time suspend or cancel such exemption.

24. Notwithstanding anything contained in this order and the Regulation made thereunder the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara may order supply of rationed articles out of the stocks held in Ajmer, by issuing ration documents for the time being in use in the city for the purpose, in favour of any person or persons for distribution and making supply of the said articles at any place within the province but outside the rationed area. On issue of the rationed document as above the provisions of the said regulation shall apply to it as if it is a ration card or a ration authority issued under the said regulation.

25. This notification replaces the Ajmer-Merwara Rationing Order, 1946 (Notification No. R. 62, dated the 24th September, 1946) from the date of the publication of this order in the Gazette of India :

Provided that anything done or deemed to have been done under the provisions of the order replaced shall be deemed to have been done under the corresponding provision of this order.

26. Any property in respect of which the trying court is satisfied that any of the provisions of this order have been contravened may be ordered by that court to be forfeited to His Majesty.

By order, etc.,

B. C. KAPUR,

Secretary to the Chief Commissioner,
Ajmer-Merwara.

Ajmer, the 10th September 1947

No. R. 32.—In pursuance of sub-clause (1) of clause 12 of the Ajmer-Merwara Rationing Order, 1947 the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara is pleased to make the following Regulation with the concurrence of the Central Government :

1. Short title, Extent and Commencement.—(1) This Regulation may be called the Revised Ajmer-Merwara Rationing Regulation, 1947.

(2) It extends to the whole of Ajmer-Merwara.

(3) It shall come into force in any local area on such date as the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara may by order in writing appoint in this behalf.

2. Interpretations.—In this Regulation, unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—

(1) “ Baker’s bread ” means baker’s bread or loaf including toasts of any of the following varieties namely : 4 oz. bread, 6 oz. bread, 8 oz. bread, 16 oz. bread, 4½ oz. nan or lamba pav or 1 lb., 2 lb., or 4 lb. sandwich loaf.

(2) “ Form ” means a form appended to this regulation.

(3) “ Manual labourer ” means a person engaged in heavy manual work.

Explanation.—The decision of the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf as to whether any person is or is not a manual labourer shall be final.

(4) "Ward Officer" means an officer appointed as such by the Chief Commissioner and includes an Assistant Ward Officer and a Chief Inspector specially authorised in this behalf by the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara.

(5) "Week" means the period commencing from the rationing date and ending at midnight of Sunday next following and each successive period of seven days thereafter.

3. Liability of guardian if ration-card holder is a minor.—For the purposes of this regulation anything required to be done by any person who is a minor shall unless already done by the minor be done on his behalf by a person who is for the time being his guardian or has for the time being actual charge of or control over him.

4. Licences under other orders when required.—An authorised wholesale or retail distributor or establishment shall when it is necessary to do so obtain a licence or authorisation under revised Ajmer-Merwara Foodgrains Control Order, 1947 and observe the conditions thereof.

CHAPTER II

Household Consumption

5. Ration documents for household consumption.—For the purposes of household consumption ration cards issued shall be the ration documents.

6. Number of coupons and period of their validity.—Save as otherwise expressly provided a ration card issued for use shall have fifty-two coupons; each coupon shall bear an inscription denoting the serial number of the week reckoned from the first week for which the coupons shall be valid:

Provided that the Chief Commissioner may declare by an order in writing that coupons bearing specified serial numbers and columns in respect of specified rationed commodities shall be valid also during other specified weeks in respect of any persons or class of persons or the public generally.

7. Application for obtaining a ration card.—Any person residing or intending to reside in Ajmer, Beawar or Nasirabad towns to whom a ration card has not been issued and who desires to have a ration card issued for himself shall apply to the Ward Officer of the Rationing Ward in which he resides or intends to reside, furnishing true and correct information in such form as the Ward Officer may require. The Ward Officer may make or cause to be made such enquiry as he deems fit for verification of the information furnished by the applicant.

8. Prohibition to apply for a ration card if a ration card has already been obtained.—Save in the case of an application for a supplementary ration card by a manual labourer no person shall apply for a ration card available for simultaneous use if he has already obtained a ration card.

9. Prohibition to obtain ration card on false information.—No person shall obtain ration card by furnishing false information.

10. Prohibition to obtaining rations on more than one ration card and obligation to report to the Ward Officer.—Save as otherwise expressly provided no person shall obtain or attempt to obtain any rationed article on more than one ration card, issued in his name. If more than one ration card available for simultaneous use is issued in the name of any person, such person shall forthwith report the fact to the Ward Officer of the Rationing Ward in which he resides.

11. Temporary ration card for a period less than eight weeks.—A temporary ration card shall be issued by the Ward Officer to any person who has made an application as required by clause 7 after the rationing date, if the period of his stay in Ajmer, Beawar, or Nasirabad towns is likely to be less than eight weeks. A temporary ration card shall bear an inscription that it is temporary and shall consist of fourteen coupons. The officer shall specify on one or more coupons the days or weeks for which they are valid and the temporary ration card shall be valid accordingly. The Ward Officer may at the request of the holder of the card and after making such inquiry as he deems fit specify on any of the other coupons the days or weeks for which they shall be valid and the validity of the card shall be extended accordingly. On such extension the Ward Officer shall issue an intimation thereof to the authorised retail distributor with whom the card is registered. The intimations shall be retained by the authorised retail distributor.

12. Person in whose name ration card issued.—The ration card shall be issued in the name of the person to whom it is issued. Such ration card shall show whether it is an adult card or a child card or an infant card.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this regulation a child means a person that has completed 2 years but not 8 years; An adult means a person that has completed 8 years. All persons below 2 completed years shall be infants.

Provided, however, that for the purpose of rationing of sugar, child means a person from birth upto 8 years.

13. Value of coupons in units.—Each coupon on an adult ration card shall be equivalent to one unit and each coupon on a child ration card shall be equivalent to one-half unit. Provided that for the purpose of rationing of sugar a child card or an infant card shall be equivalent to one unit.

14. Quantity of rationed articles for a unit on a ration card.—The quantity of ration article represented by a unit shall be the quantity specified in writing from time to time by the Chief Commissioner.

15. Notice of departure from the rationed area, provision for surrender of ration card on such departure.—(1) Every holder of a ration card shall and the head of the household of which such holder is a member may, notify in writing to the officer in charge of the nearest Ward Rationing Office the absence of such holder from the rationed area for more than seven days. The notice shall, if not given in advance be given within ten days from the date of absence and shall contain the following particulars namely :

20. Registration of ration card for obtaining supplies.—No person may obtain any rationed article on a ration card unless he first,

(1) signs or puts his thumb impression in the space provided for the purpose on the ration card,

(2) gets himself registered for obtaining his supply of rationed articles with an authorised retail distributor and,

(3) complies with any other directions which the Chief Commissioner in this behalf may issue.

21. With whom ration card may be registered.—Save as provided in clause 22, a holder of a ration card may register himself with any authorised retail dealer situated in the rationing ward in which he resides. If he wants to register himself with any dealer outside his rationing ward he will obtain special permission from the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf ; provided that the restriction will not apply to registration with authorised retail distributor running a shop for the benefit of a particular class of an authorised retail distributor who is an employer.

22. Compulsion on an authorised retail distributor to register ration cards.—Every authorised retail distributor who is not an employer running a retail shop for the benefit of his employees or authorised retail distributor running the shop for the benefit of a class of persons shall when requested to do register the holder of a ration card. Provided that he shall refuse to register such holder if the number of card holders already registered with him will thereby exceed 2,500 permanent cards, unless this limit is waived by the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara in writing in the case of a particular authorised retail distributor.

23. Registration by an authorised dealer who is an employer.—An authorised dealer who is an employer shall when requested to do, register the holder of a ration card who is his employee and shall refuse to register non-employees who are not members of the household of his employees.

24. Registration by an authorised retail dealer who is running the shop for the benefit of a class of persons.—An authorised retail dealer running a shop for the benefit of a class of persons shall when requested to do, register the holder of a ration card who is a member of the class including members of his household and may refuse to register a holder who is not a member.

25. Procedure for registration.—The holder of a ration card shall get himself registered in the following manner namely :—

(1) He shall by himself or through an agent present the ration card to an authorised retail distributor in order to enable the distributor to enter his authorisation number and signature in the ration card ; and

(2) he shall by himself or through an agent permit the distributor to detach and retain with him the counterfoil of the ration card.

(3) Every authorised retail distributor with whom the holder of a ration card seeks registration shall enter in the ration card presented to him his authorisation number and signature. He shall detach and retain with him the counterfoil of such ration card, he shall preserve all such counterfoils. He shall enter the serial No. and all other relevant particulars on the ration card in a register of ration card holders to be maintained by him in the form specified in Appendix A.

26. Supply of rationed articles to registered ration card holders.—(1) On demand and offer of a price by or on behalf of the holder of ration card registered with an authorised retail distributor and against cancellation of the appropriate coupon or coupons by writing the quantity to be supplied the distributor shall supply to the holder rationed articles not exceeding the quantity obtainable on the coupon or coupons. Immediately after the supply is made the authorised retail dealer shall enter all relevant particulars of the supply correctly in a register to be maintained by him in the form specified in Appendix B.

(2) The distributor shall comply with such other directions as may be issued by the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf.

27. Transfer of registration.—Notwithstanding anything contained in clauses 20 to 26 the officer authorised by the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara in this behalf may issue instructions transferring the name of a person registered with any authorised retail distributor from such distributor to another authorised retail distributor.

CHAPTER III

Establishments generally

28. Ration documents for establishments.—For the purposes of an establishment, ration permit and ration authorities shall be the ration documents.

29. Prohibition to obtain rations on more than one ration permit and obligation to report to the Ward Officer.—No person shall obtain or attempt to obtain a rationed article on more than one ration permit or authority issued in his name for obtaining that article for the purposes of an establishment ; if more than one ration permit or authority available for simultaneous use is issued in the name of any person for obtaining one and the same rationed article for the purposes of the establishment, such person shall forthwith report the fact to the Ward Officer.

CHAPTER IV

Catering establishments, institutions and residential establishments

30. Ration permit issued in the name of the person in charge of the establishment.—A ration permit for obtaining rationed articles for the purposes of the establishment shall be issued on application and necessary enquiry by District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara or any officer authorised by him in this behalf in the name of the person in charge of an authorised catering establishment, institution or residential establishment.

31. Number of coupons, period of their validity and number of units on a ration permit.—Such permit issued for the first time shall have four coupons ; that issued for the second time shall have twenty coupons ; and that issued any time after shall have alternately twenty-eight and twenty-four coupons. Each coupon shall be valid for the week specified on it and shall be valid for the units specified in this respect on such permits. The value of each such unit shall be the same as specified under clause 14.

32. Registration of ration permit for obtaining supplies.—No holder of such permit shall obtain any rationed article on the permit unless he gets himself registered with an authorised retail distributor or with a Ward Officer as may be directed on the permit.

33. Procedure for registration with authorised retail distributor.—When a ration permit directs registration with an authorised retail distributor the provisions of clauses 20 to 26 shall apply as if the permit were a ration card.

Provided that the limit specified under clause 22 shall not apply in respect of ration permits.

34. Procedure for registration with Ward Officer.—Where a ration permit directs registration with a Ward Officer, the holder of the ration permit shall get himself registered in the following manner :—

(1) he shall by himself or through an agent present the ration permit to the Ward Officer in order to enable him to enter his designation and signature in the ration permit ; and

(2) he shall by himself or through an agent permit the Ward Officer to detach and retain with him the counterfoil of the ration permit.

35. Procedure of registration by the Ward Officers.—A Ward Officer with whom the holder of a ration permit seeks registration shall enter in the ration permit presented to him his designation and signature. He shall detach and retain with him the counterfoil of such ration permits. He shall preserve all such counterfoils. He shall enter the serial number on the ration permit and the units specified thereon in a register to be maintained by him.

36. Indent for obtaining ration authority from the Ward Officer.—Once every week the holder of the ration permit shall submit to the Ward Officer an indent specifying the number of units for foodgrains, sugar and kerosene oil separately for the rationed articles not exceeding the quantity obtainable on the coupon valid for that week. On the basis of such indent, and against cancellation of the said coupon, the Ward Officer shall issue a ration authority specifying in maunds and seers or in gallons and bottles the quantity obtainable thereupon and the period during which it shall be valid.

37. Issue of ration authority for obtaining supplies from Government godown or wholesale dealer.—The ration authority shall be drawn in triplicate, one copy shall be retained by the Ward Officer, another copy shall be delivered to the holder of the permit, and the remaining copy shall be sent to the Godown Officer in charge of Government Godowns or to an authorised wholesale distributor. The ration authority shall be valid for the period specified on it and no supply shall be made on such authorities on the expiry of such period.

38. Supply of rationed articles on the ration authority.—On demand and offer of price by or on behalf of the holder of a ration authority and against cancellation of such authority, a person in charge of a godown appertaining to the rationed articles and under the control of the Crown or the authorised wholesale distributor, as the case may be, shall supply to the holder, rationed articles in quantities specified on such authority. Immediately after the supply is made the person in charge of the godown or the authorised wholesale distributor shall enter all relevant particulars of the supply correctly in a register to be maintained by him as specified in Appendix C.

39. Supply of food by establishments to residents and other customers.—(1) On demand and offer of price by a resident in the establishment, the person in charge of the establishment shall supply food prepared from the rationed articles.

(2) The person in charge of the establishment may supply food prepared from the rationed articles to any other customer for the purpose only of establishment consumption.

CHAPTER V

Authorised retail distributors

40. Indent for obtaining ration authority from the Ward Officer.—In connection with the ration documents registered with him and the counterfoils retained by him an authorised retail distributor shall maintain a register in Form I. At least once in every week he shall submit to the Ward Officer of the Rationing Ward in which his shop is situated, or in case he is an authorised retail distributor who is employer, at least once in four weeks, he shall submit to the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara, the register together with the counterfoils and shall specify the total number of foodgrains, sugar and kerosene oil units registered with him. The Ward Officer or the District Rationing Officer, Ajmer-Merwara as the case may be, shall check the register and return it to the distributor. For the first week there shall also be submitted along with the register a duplicate thereof which the Ward Officer shall retain. He shall then issue the distributor a ration authority as provided in clause 36 specifying in terms of maunds and seers or in gallons and bottles the quantity of the rationed articles obtainable thereon and the period for which the authority shall be valid.

41. Maximum quantity of rationed articles available on ration authority.—(1) For the first week the quantity of a rationed article covered by the authority shall not be less than the maximum obtainable as on a ration card in relation to that article on the total No. of the registered units.

(2) For any subsequent week, the quantity of a rationed article covered by the authority shall not be less than the extent to which the quantity of that article in stock with the authorised retail distributor is short of the maximum specified in sub-clause (1) due to sales lawfully made.

42. Issue of ration authority for obtaining supplies from Government godown or wholesale dealer.—The ration authority shall be drawn in triplicate; one copy shall be retained by the Ward Officer, another copy shall be delivered to the holder of the permit; the remaining copy shall be sent to the Godown Officer in charge of Government Godowns or to an authorised wholesale distributor. The ration authority shall be valid for the period specified on it and no supply shall be made on such authority on the expiry of such period.

43. Supply of rationed articles on the ration authority.—On demand and offer of price by or on behalf of the holder of a ration authority and against cancellation of such authority, a person in charge of the godown appertaining to the rationed articles and under the control of the Crown or the authorised wholesale distributor, as the case may be, shall supply to the holder rationed articles in quantities specified on such authority.

CHAPTER VI

Animal establishment and domestic animals

44. Animal ration permit issued in the name of person in charge of animal establishment or in charge of domestic animals.—A ration permit for obtaining rationed articles for an authorised animal establishment or for domestic animals shall be issued in the name of the person in charge of an authorised animal establishment or in charge of domestic animals.

45. Number of coupons, period of their validity and No. of units on a ration permit.—Such permit shall at its first issue have twenty coupons and at subsequent issue alternately have twenty-eight and twenty-four coupons each valid for the week specified on it and shall be valid for the units specified in this respect on such permits.

46. Quantity of rationed articles for a unit on animal establishment permit.—The quantity of rationed articles represented by a unit on animal establishment permit shall be the quantity specified in writing from time to time by Chief Commissioner.

47. Procedure for registration with the authorised retail dealer.—The provisions of clauses 20—26 shall so far as may apply as if such ration permit were a ration card.

CHAPTER VII

Baker's bread

48. Ration document for obtaining baker's bread.—For the purpose of obtaining baker's bread in connection with household consumption or establishment consumption bread tickets issued under this chapter shall be ration documents.

49. Period of validity of bread ticket.—A bread ticket shall be valid for the week during which it is issued and also for the succeeding week.

50. Denomination of bread tickets.—Bread tickets shall be of the denomination of 1, 2, 5, 10 and 50 bread units. The No. of bread units shall be printed on the bread ticket.

51. Quantity of bread for each unit on bread ticket.—The quantity represented by each unit on a bread ticket shall be 4 oz. of bread.

52. Procedure for obtaining bread ticket.—Any holder of a ration card or permit may demand of an authorised retail distributor or the Ward Officer as the case may be with whom he is registered, a bread ticket in exchange for a quantity of wheat not exceeding the maximum obtainable by him on any coupon. On such demand the authorised retail distributor or Ward Officer with whom such holder is registered shall calculate the No. of bread units corresponding to the said quantity of wheat at the rate of 2 chs. of wheat equal to 1 unit. He shall then on cancellation of the coupons issue a bread ticket or bread tickets to the holder as provided in clause 53 to make up the required bread units.

53. Procedure for issue of bread ticket.—The authorised retail distributor or Ward Officer as the case may be, shall issue a bread ticket or bread tickets as far as possible of the highest denominations to make up the required number of units. He shall enter on each bread ticket the No. of the ration card or permit against which it is issued. He shall also specify on each bread ticket in figures and words the number of the week during which it is issued.

54. Supply of bread on the bread ticket.—Every authorised manufacturing establishment shall and any other authorised establishment or wholesale or retail distributor may supply bread to the holder of a bread ticket against the surrender of such ticket during the period for which the ticket is valid and only upto the quantity of bread as represented by the bread units printed on the bread tickets.

CHAPTER VIII

Manufacturing establishment

55. Indent for obtaining ration authority for wheat flour from the Ward Officer.—In connection with the bread tickets surrendered to him a person in charge of an authorised manufacturing establishment shall maintain a register in Form . . . Once every week he shall submit to the Ward Officer, for the Rationing Ward in which the establishment is situated the register together with the bread tickets and shall specify the total number of bread units registered with him. The Ward Officer shall check the register and return it. There shall also be submitted along with the register a duplicate thereof which the Ward Officer shall retain. Ward Officer shall also retain the bread tickets submitted to him. He shall then issue to the said establishment on the basis of the registered bread units a ration authority, specifying the quantity of wheat or wheat flour obtainable thereon and the period for which the permit is valid. No supply shall be made on such authority on the expiry of such period.

56. Supply of wheat or wheat flour on the ration authority.—On demand and offer of price by or on behalf of the holder of such ration authority and against the surrender of such authority an authorised wholesale dealer shall supply wheat or wheat flour as the case may be to the holder during the period for which the authority is valid and up to the quantity specified thereon.
